

During the recent blackout, communications was virtually knocked out, including cell phones. It is possible to operate a CW station at extremely low power for many weeks on a standard car battery, no power lines, satellites, or other dependencies are required, and the signal will get through where others fail, Please implement the Rule Making submitted by the FISTS CW Club and designated RM-10811.

Larry McCaig - KC1YC